

PICK-a-POINT Control System

BBV

PICK-a-POINT typical workstation

Application Notes

The BBV PICK_a_POINT is a powerful CPU based control system designed to simplify the control of cameras and ancillary devices in medium to large CCTV systems. The strength of the system is in its simplicity of operation. No PC knowledge is required simply click on a camera with the mouse and control it by using the standard CCTV keyboard or the mouse.

Systems are manufactured to match individual requirements and a number of third party interfaces are available.

System components

- 1 CPU pre-loaded with BBV software
- 1 Modem for remote support and updates
- 1 Watchdog card (in CPU) for trouble free running
- 1 8 Communication ports
- 1 15" Flat Screen TFT CPU Monitor
- 1 Pick_a_Point system keypad

Features

- Delivered pre-configured to customer requirement
- Remote support via in built modem as standard
- Control system designed to suit each individual application.
- Supports multi protocols (up to 3 different protocols per system)
- Can provide control of local and remote site from the same work station
- Control of multiple devices from the one keypad
- Multi level mapping for easy navigation of sites
- Full on site training and commissioning provided.(UK Mainland)
- No on site configuration required.

Building Block Video Ltd.

17 Apex Way, Diplocks Industrial Estate, Hailsham, East Sussex, UK. BN27 3JU.
Tel:+44(0)1323 842727 Fax:+44(0)1323 842728 Support: +44(0)1323 444600
sales@bbvcctv.com www.bbvcctv.com